In addition, the Employer shall furnish a monthly Union group report showing any changes for the current bargaining unit Employees in the previous calendar month.

IV. Bulletin Boards

- A. The Employer shall provide the Union with bulletin board space designated with the Union's name for its exclusive use in eleven (11) mutually agreed upon areas for the purpose of posting Union notices. Such space in each area will be large enough to

- c. The Employer agrees to allow the Union to provide input during and after the revision of these policies. This input will include an opportunity for representation for the Union on each current or future standing or ad-hoc stakeholder committee convened by the University's Office of Civil Rights whose purpose includes revising or providing feedback on the University's anti-discrimination and harassment policies including the RVSM policy. The University shall give the Union equitable representation compared to other stakeholders. These representatives will be selected by the Union and have the rights and responsibilities concerning the committee commensurate with any full member of the committee.

- II. If an Employee claiming a violation of this article elects to proceed to an administrative agency or to court during the pendency of the grievance or at any time prior to the issuance of the written opinion and award of an arbitrator, the grievance will be considered to have been withdrawn. The University's Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) is not an administrative agency for the purposes of this provision. The grievant has the choice to involve OIE, except in cases where the claim triggers the mandatory reporting policy. The preceding sentence does not prohibit other university personnel or officials from referring the matter to OIE.

In cases where OIE is involved in investigating complaints, the grievant must receive updates from OIE on the progress of the investigation at reasonable time intervals. Grievances alleging a violation(s) of this article shall be held in abeyance pending the completion of the OIE process, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties. However, in the event a matter arising under this Article proceeds to arbitration, the arbitrator cannot issue any award that makes an academic judgment.

- III. Union Activities

Neither the Employer nor the Union shall discriminate against, intimidate, restrain, coerce, or interfere with an Employee because of, or with respect to, her or his lawful Union activities, including participation in a grievance, or membership, or the right to refrain from such activities or membership. In addition, there shall be no discrimination against any Employee in the application of the terms of this Agreement because of membership or non-membership in the Union.

- IV. Training

The University and Union affirm their commitment to properly train employees on the Employer's policies concerning discrimination and harassment including the RVSM policy.

- a. The Employer agrees to involve the Union in efforts to develop expanded opportunities that are tailored to graduate employees for training and education on the Employer's policies concerning discrimination, harassment and RVSM issues.
- b. The Employer agrees to offer an opportunity for in-person training on anti-discrimination, anti-harassment, and RVSM issues to TAs during or before the first year in which the employee begins to work as a TA. This provision is satisfied if training is offered through the "New TA Institute" or other similar large group presentation. The University is not required to provide "make-up" opportunities for Employees who do not, or who cannot, attend the offered training, though the University may voluntarily elect to provide such "make-up" opportunities. The University agrees to offer said in-person training at least once every academic year, but the parties agree the University may offer opportunities on a more frequent basis. This training must at least include information on University policies as well as information on how to sensitively respond to survivors. This in-person training shall be in addition to the annual online RVSM training requirements from the MSU OCR, Title IX education and compliance.
- c. The Employer will provide a standardized list of campus and community RVSM related resources to graduate Employees, as well as information on how to sensitively respond to survivors. It is understood that this list and information will be brief in nature and may be provided in a brochure or similar format.

ARTICLE 8 UNION DUES AND REPRESENTATION FEES

I. General Terms

- A. During the term of this Agreement, the Employer will deduct current Union dues or representation fees from the salary of each Employee who voluntarily elects and authorizes such deduction by using a mutually agreed upon payroll deduction authorization form/membership card. New individual authorizations submitted to the Employer's payroll office on or before the last calendar day of each month will be effective for deductions from the first paycheck in the following month.
- B. The Employer (appointing unit) shall within fifteen (15) calendar days following the offer of an appointment, or the start of the employment period, whichever is later, inform each new Employee of his/her options under this article and will provide a payroll deduction authorization form/membership card. Such payroll deduction authorization form/membership card shall be provided to the Employer by the Union. The payroll deduction authorization form/membership card will be provided to all new Employees with their appointment forms, and thereafter will be available to all Employees through their department, unit, and/or from the Union .

- C. The Employer will deduct Union dues or representation fees per pay period from the stipend of Employees who have authorized a deduction. An Employee may revoke his/her payroll deduction authorization at any time by submitting notice on the "Authorization to Discontinue Union Dues or Service Fee Deductions Form" and sending it to the Employer's payroll office and the Union by U.S. mail. Such revocation will be processed within thirty (30) days of receipt.
- D. The amount or rate of the deductions shall be certified to the Employer in writing by the Union's financial officer. The Employer shall implement any changes in the certified deduction amount as soon as possible, but in no case later than sixty (60) days after notification by the Union.
- E. The Employer will remit all deductions to the Union for each month that dues or fees were deducted within twenty (20) days after the payday covering the pay period of the deduction. At the same time, the Employer will provide the Union with a list of all Employees from whose pay dues or fees have been deducted. This list shall be alphabetical and contain the name of the Employee, the MSU-Net ID of the Employee, and the amount deducted from each Employee's pay and whether this amount represents dues or fees unless doing so violates law, in which case information shall be anonymous. This list will be provided by the Employer in a mutually agreed format. The Union shall provide the Employer with a Dues and Representation Fee Discrepancy Report listing under-deductions within twenty (20) working days following the receipt of the sums and the lists of names described above. The Employer shall review the Dues and Representation Fee Discrepancy Report and make all appropriate adjustments to payroll deductions as early as feasible, but no later than the second subsequent payday. In cases where a deduction is made that duplicates a payment already made to the Union by an Employee, or where a deduction is not in conformity with the dues and fee structure of the Union, refunds to the Employee shall be made by the Union.
- F. Unless authorization is withdrawn, dues and fees shall be calculated over the entire employment period from Employees who have authorized a deduction on any applicable stipend received in the pay period.
- G. When an Employee who has a payroll deduction authorization form/membership card on file with the Employer Payroll Office, or for whom automatic deduction has been authorized under Section III, ceases to be in the bargaining unit, the dues and fees deduction under this Agreement shall cease unless the Employee resumes employment in the bargaining unit.

H. The Union shall protect and save harmless the Employer from any and all claims, demands, suits and other forms of liability by reason of action taken or not taken by the Employer for the purpose of complying with this Article.

II. Union Membership Dues

If the Employee desires to voluntarily join the GEU, the Employee shall complete the payroll deduction authorization/membership card, check the membership box and submit it to the Union office.

III. Representation Fees

If the Employee does not desire to join the GEU, but voluntarily agrees to pay a representation fee, the Employee shall complete the payroll deduction authorization/membership card for representation fees, check the representation fee box and submit it to the Union office.

ARTICLE 9 EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

- I. Library borrowing privileges shall be provided to Employees for not less than 180 days, subject to library recall policies.

- VIII. Access to supplies, duplicating, collating and other office machinery (including but not limited to photocopiers, computers and computer printers) shall be available without charge to an Employee at least to the extent required by his/her employment obligations, as determined by the employing unit. - IX. Employees will be provided access to telephones, the internet and a desk or work surface for the performance of employment duties.
- X. An Employee who teaches a discussion, lab or lecture course will be consulted by the chairperson/director or designee prior to any change in any grade that the Employee has assigned.
- XI. Each employing unit shall make appropriate arrangements for safe storage of final exams and grading records. The location and rules of access to these storage facilities will be communicated by the employing unit to all Employees.
- XII. Employees shall have the right to take reasoned exception to information and views offered in courses in which they are employed and to make suggestions for improvement.
- XIII. Policies regarding Employee priority in the purchase of athletic tickets and passes shall apply to Employees.

Employing units that provide individual Employee mail receptacles on the execution date of this Agreement shall continue to provide such individual receptacles.
- XV. Employees will have access to an email account in the same manner as the faculty.

ARTICLE 10 EMPLOYMENT PERIOD

It is expressly understood that employment and compensation is for completing course responsibilities regardless of the employment period dates. The periods of employment will be as defined below. Work may take place outside those periods as allowed in Article 15, when necessitated by unusual circumstances, or where work is de minimis in nature.

- A. Fall Semester: August 16 to December 31
- B. Spring Semester: January 1 to May 15
- C. Summer Semester: May 16 to August 15

While course responsibilities may include a variety of activities, the parties agree that course responsibilities do not include the following:

- A. Completion of personal tasks unrelated to scholarly work;
- B. Academic research outside of the employee's work or scholarly development;
- C. Preparation of course materials that are not intended for use in the current employment period and which do not have any relation to the employee's work or scholarly development.

ARTICLE 11 APPOINTMENTS

I. Term of Appointment

- A. Appointments of Employees shall be for a specific period up to one year. However, nothing within the terms of this Agreement precludes the Employer from making appointments of Employees for periods longer than one year. Appointments and assignments shall be at the discretion of the employing unit.
- B. All newly appointed and re-appointed Employees shall receive a letter of appointment that specifies the appointment title, level and the appointment time fraction. Such appointment letter shall also include the effective dates, salary and, if known, teaching or work schedule and the employing unit representative to contact for information regarding the appointment and applicable benefits.

II. Employment Information

- A. The Employer will make relevant employment information available on the Graduate School Web Site, which shall include employing unit contact name, telephone number and e-mail addresses, or employing unit web sites that include B, 1 and 2, below.
- B. Employing units employing or anticipating the employment of Teaching Assistants will make information about all available openings, qualifications, and application procedures, including application due dates, for Teaching Assistantships available to graduate students. (The term "available openings" does not include those set aside for recruitment purposes.) However, employing units retain the right to select

Teaching Assistants who satisfy their own specific requirements. Employing units will maintain posted information as follows:

1. Information about procedures for applying for Teaching Assistantships including the name or location of an office where inquiries or applications may be made.
2. A listing of courses that typically have Teaching Assistants assigned or are expected to have Teaching Assistants assigned. This list will be updated to include other course opportunities that may become available. A separate list of Summer Semester course possibilities will be posted if applicable.
3. Employing units will allow applicants for Teaching Assistantships to submit in writing course placement preferences.

III. Re-Employment Notification

The Employer, through its employing units, will notify an Employee of a decision to re-employ or not to re-employ as an Employee:

- A. By July 1 for the following Fall Semester, and
- B. By December 1 for those who will be employed for the following Spring Semester.
- C. By May 1 employees will be advised of decisions to re-employ for the Summer Semester. There is no obligation to advise employees that they will not be re-employed for the summer semester.
- D. The reappointment letter may contain language that qualifies the offer of employment to unusual circumstances, using the following sentence: "This appointment may be withdrawn only in unusual circumstances."
- E. In the event of unusual circumstances resulting in the withdrawal or reduction of any appointment, the Union shall be notified concurrently with the Employee and, at the request of the Union, a Special Conference shall be held within seven (7) working days.
- F. If notification letters are not issued within the specified time limits, and the Union notifies the employing unit, the Dean of the Graduate School and the Office of Employee Relations of failure to comply with III A., the employing unit shall issue the letter within five (5) working days. Employees who do not receive a letter within five (5) days of notice shall receive two weeks' pay from the employing unit at the pay rate the Employee would have received had she or he been appointed. Acceptance of such payment will satisfy any grievance or claim pertaining to this matter.

IV. Employment Pool

An employing unit that has employment opportunities after the dates in Section III, A, and III, B, above, will maintain a pool of applicants who meet employment qualifications and who may be employed at a later date. The employing unit will, upon request, advise applicants as to whether they are in the pool.

ARTICLE 12
JOB SECURITY

I. Period of Employment and Termination

An Employee shall be employed for a specific period of not less than one semester or for a special limited purpose. Employment for a “special limited purpose” is employment that covers unforeseen needs that arise during a semester that may be for less than one semester.

In all cases, employment terminates at the end of the specific period as noted in the appointment letter (so long as all required course responsibilities are completed), or when the special limited purpose is completed.

While employment will continue until the completion of course responsibilities, Employees will not be required to work more than three (3) days past the grade submission date unless an alternative arrangement has been made between faculty and the Teaching Assistant.

Employment may also terminate when the Employee fails to meet the following requirements at the University:

A. Fall and Spring Semesters:

1. Be in good standing according to University policy as a student in a master’s degree program and registered for not fewer than six (6) credit hours each semester, respectively, or
2. Be in good standing according to University policy as a student in a doctoral degree program and registered for not fewer than three (3) credit hours each semester, or not fewer than one (1) credit hour each semester after successful completion of all comprehensive examinations.

B. Summer Semester:

Be in good standing according to University policy as a student in a graduate degree program and registered for not fewer than three (3) credit hours or not fewer than one (1) credit hour each semester after successful completion of all comprehensive examinations.

- II. Notwithstanding the above, Employees in the last semester of their graduate degree program shall enroll for a minimum of one (1) credit hour.
- III. No academic matter regarding an Employee's role as a student provided for in Sections I, A, 1; I, A, 2; and I, B of this Article shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure.
- IV. Procedure for Unsatisfactory Performance

When employment performance is unsatisfactory, the employment duties may be reduced and employment fraction and pay may be reduced correspondingly, or employment may be terminated. In cases of unsatisfactory employment performance, the matter will first be discussed with the Employee prior to any action being taken. If the Employer determines that the existing situation can be corrected by the Employee and is of such a nature that correction is appropriate, the Employee will be given not less than one calendar week from date of discussion to make the correction. A written summary of such a discussion will be available at the written request of the Employee provided the request is received within forty-eight (48) hours of the discussion. When allowed by law, a copy of this summary will be provided to the Union.

- V. Discipline

The parties recognize the authority of the Employer to suspend, discharge, or take other appropriate disciplinary action against Employees for just cause. Discharge may result from an accumulation of minor infractions as well as for a single serious infraction. Whenever it is appropriate, the Employer shall give the Employee advance notice of its intent to hold an investigatory interview. An Employee shall be entitled to the presence of a Union Representative at an investigatory interview if he/she has reasonable grounds to believe that the interview may be used to support disciplinary action against him/her, and he/she requests representation. If any discipline is taken against an Employee, the Employee will receive a copy of the disciplinary action. In the event that an Employee is discharged, the Employee will receive a copy of the notice of discharge, including a summary of the reasons for the discharge. When allowed by law, the Union will be provided a copy of any notice of discharge. An Employee may appeal a suspension or discharge beginning at Step Two of the Grievance Procedure.

- VI. Appeals

If a determination results in a discharge or a reduction in fraction of employment and pay during the term of employment, a grievance may be submitted beginning at Step Two of the Grievance Procedure, provided the grievance is submitted in writing within the fifteen (15) calendar day period following notice of the discharge or reduction. In the event of an arbitration, if the Arbitrator does not find for the Employer, the Arbitrator may only make a finding of fact and award pay but not reinstatement. Such pay shall not exceed an amount that the Employee would have earned from the date of discharge to the end of the term of employment.

The specific number of hours in any week may vary from the average according to the needs of the employing unit. However, over the course of the semester appointment, the average number of hours worked per week shall not unreasonably exceed the above. The Employer also recognizes the number of work hours in a week may be limited by applicable law and regulation for employees with certain visas. Those laws and regulations are beyond the scope of this Agreement and the remedies provided herein. However, the terms of this paragraph do not authorize or permit any deviation from the applicable legal limits.

- II. At the outset of the appointment, and as questions arise during the appointment, supervisors shall discuss the work location(s), travel requirements, and scope and pattern of duties with the Employees. This discussion should also account for how the Employee is expected to spend his or her time in fulfilling specific duties, including authorized travel. During these consultations, the Employee and supervisor may use the worksheet provided by the Union as a communication aid. Should supervisors become aware of potential workload fluctuations of a substantial nature, including changes to enrollment limits, they will notify affected Employees as soon as practicable.

An Employee who believes they are expected to work more than the averages specified in Paragraph I above may request a meeting with the Employee's supervisor and/or head of the employing unit to discuss work load expectations. The meeting shall be scheduled and conducted, absent extenuating circumstances, within ten (10) business days from a written request submitted by the Employee to the supervisor and copied to Employee Relations and Academic Human Resources. The supervisor and/or head of the employing unit may be represented by a designee at the meeting. The Employee shall have the right to Union representation at such meeting and the University may elect to have representatives of the office of Employee Relations and/or Academic Human Resources attend. The Employee may file a grievance under the provision of Article 26 if the meeting does not result in a resolution concerning work expectations upon which the Employee, the supervisor, and the employing unit agree.

- D. Individual Employees or groups of Employees shall have the right to present grievances through Step Two of the Grievance Procedure, provided that a Union representative has been afforded the opportunity to be present at any discussions, and that any settlement reached is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

- E. If the grievance is filed with Union representation, the Employer will provide copies of written decisions to the Employee and the Union. If the grievance is filed without Union representation, the Employee will be given an opportunity either to release written decisions to the Union or to assert the confidentiality of the decision under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”).
- F. Step One of the Grievance Procedure may be waived by mutual written agreement. In addition, where the same employing unit representative hears more than one (1) step of a grievance, those steps shall be consolidated.
- G. If the Employer requests that an aggrieved Employee be present in any step of the Grievance Procedure, he/she will be required to do so, except in extenuating circumstances.

II. Grievance Steps

The following procedure shall be the sole and exclusive means for resolving grievances.

A. Informal Step

An Employee or one designated member of a group of Employees, having a complaint as defined in Section I A, may take the complaint up with the immediate supervisor or designee. If the complaint is not resolved a grievance may be filed at Step One. At the Employee’s option, a Union representative may be present during any discussion with the supervisor or designee in an effort to resolve the complaint. The informal process shall not be included in, or toll, the time limits within which the step one formal grievance must be presented as set forth in paragraph II. B. below.

B. Step One

Except as otherwise provided below, all grievances must be presented promptly but no later than forty (40) days from the date the grievant first became aware of, or should have become aware of with the exercise of reasonable diligence, the cause of such grievance. The following are exceptions to the forty (40) day time limit:

1. Grievances filed over hours of work disputes must be presented no later than forty (40) days following the end of the semester in which the alleged violation occurred.
2. Grievances filed over issues within the scope of the University’s Relationship Violence and Sexual Misconduct Policy, Anti-Discrimination Policy or successor to those policies must be presented no later than sixty (60) days following the issuance of the final report or other final disposition by the University's Office of Institutional Equity or other office with authority to investigate complaints arising under those policies.

The employing unit designee will meet the Employee(s) and his/her representative, if any, within fifteen (15) days from receipt of the grievance and attempt to resolve the grievance. A written answer will be placed on the grievance by the employing unit designee not later than fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

C. Step Two

1. If the answer at Step One is unacceptable, to be considered further, the grievance must be appealed by the Union to the Provost or her/his designee within fifteen (15) days from receipt of the Step One answer. The Provost or her/his designee will meet with the Employee(s) and his/her Union representative, if any, within fifteen (15) days from receipt of the appeal of Step One.
2. Following the meeting, the written answer of the Provost or her/his designee will be placed on the grievance not later than fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

D. Step Three

1. Grievances which have not been settled at Step Two of the Grievance Procedure may be appealed to arbitration within thirty (30) days from the date of the Step Two answer. If a grievance is not appealed to arbitration within thirty (30) days of the Step Two answer, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Step Two answer without prejudice or precedent in the resolution of future grievances. The issue as stated in the grievance and any amendments made thereon, in writing, at the Step Two grievance meeting shall constitute the sole and entire subject matter to be heard by the Arbitrator, unless the parties agree to modify the scope of the hearing.
2. Following the written notice, the Employer and the Union shall attempt to select an arbitrator. If an arbitrator is not selected within five (5) days of the written notice, the Union, within the next ten (10) days, may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) or the American Arbitration Association (AAA) to administer the process of selecting an arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall not be an Employee of the University or of the Union, nor be a member nor Employee of the Michigan Federation of Teachers and School Related Personnel or of the American Federation of Teachers.

- a. Either the Employer or the Union or both shall notify the Arbitrator of selection and upon acceptance shall forward to the Arbitrator a copy of the grievance, the answer at Step Two, the notice of intent to arbitrate and a copy of the Agreement. A copy of the communication, without a copy of the Agreement, shall be sent to the other party. If the Arbitrator does not accept selection, the selection process shall be repeated until an arbitrator has accepted selection.
- b. The Arbitrator shall fix the time and place for hearing the issue or issues submitted for decision.
- c. At the arbitration hearing, both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to examine and cross-examine witnesses.
- d. Upon request of either the Employer or the Union or both, a transcript of the hearing shall be made and furnished to the Arbitrator with the Employer and the Union having an opportunity to purchase their own copy. The party requesting the transcript shall bear the cost of the Arbitrator's copy, unless it is mutually requested. In such case, the cost shall be shared equally.
- e. At the close of the hearing, the Arbitrator shall afford the Employer and the Union a reasonable time period to submit post-hearing briefs if either party requests the opportunity.
- f. The jurisdictional authority of the Arbitrator is defined as, and limited to, the determination of the grievance submitted to him/her consistent with this Agreement after consideration by him/her in accordance with this Agreement.
- g. The Arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, or otherwise modify any of the terms, clauses or provisions of this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not substitute her/his judgment for that of the Employer where the Employer's judgment and actions are based upon reasonable cause and do not violate the written provisions of this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have no authority in any circumstance to award back pay or any other monetary relief, which is greater than the grievant would have been entitled to if there had been no violation. The Arbitrator shall have no authority in academic matters regarding the Grievant's role as a student.
- h. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Employer and the Union. The expenses of, and the compensation for, each and every witness/representative for either the Employer or the Union shall be paid by the party producing the witness/representative or on whose behalf he/she appears.

- i. The Arbitrator shall render the decision in writing within thirty (30) calendar days following the hearing or the receipt of post-hearing briefs, whichever is later.
- j. The Arbitrator's decision, when made in accordance with the Arbitrator's jurisdiction and authority established by this Agreement, shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the Employee or Employees involved.
- k. The provisions of this Section do not prohibit the Employer and the Union from mutually agreeing to expedited arbitration of a given grievance or grievances.

III. Time Limits on Appeal

- A. If the Employer fails to answer a grievance within the specified time limits, the grievance may be processed to the next step of the Grievance Procedure. If such grievance is not appealed within specified time limits, it shall be considered withdrawn.
- B. Any grievance not appealed within specified time limits shall be considered settled on the basis of the last answer and not subject to further review.
- C. A grievance may be withdrawn and, if so withdrawn, may not be reinstated, and no financial liabilities shall result.
- D. Where more than one grievance involves a similar issue, the additional grievances, by mutual agreement, may be held in abeyance without prejudice pending the disposition of an appeal to Step Three or arbitration of the representative grievance.
- E. The specified time limits at each step of the procedure may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties involved at that step.
- F. Whenever time limits are used in this Article, they shall be understood to mean calendar days. The time limits shall be tolled during Winter break, Spring break, final exam weeks and University designated holidays. (This provision shall apply only to the Grievance Procedure.)

IV. Post-Grievance Employer-Employee Relationship

When the Employer schedules a meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Article, attendance at such a meeting by the Employee and/or Union Representative shall not adversely affect their employment relationship.

ARTICLE 27 INFORMATION

- I. Upon written request from the Union, the Employer will provide the Union with any and all information required or allowed by state or federal law.
- II. The cost of providing and reproducing such information shall be discussed and agreed upon by the parties.

ARTICLE 28 DISTRIBUTION OF THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

- I. Any material placed into the Agreement that is not proofed and initialed by the Employer and the Union shall not be considered a valid part of the Agreement.
- III. The Employer will post the Agreement on the Employer's website and will make an electronic version available to the Union. The Employer shall not be required to produce any paper copies of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 29 SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

- I. This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Employer and the Union. This Agreement shall supersede and cancel all previous agreements, whether written or oral, prior to the date of ratification either established by the Employer or between the Employer, the Union or Employees. Any agreement(s) that supplement this Agreement shall not be binding or effective unless reduced to writing and signed by the Employer and the Union. Such supplement(s) shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement.
- II. No past practice, course of conduct, or understanding prior to the date of ratification which varies, waives, or modifies any of the express terms and conditions contained herein shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made and executed in writing by the Employer and the Union .
- III. The Employer and the Union acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. No provision of this Agreement, or any supplement thereto, nor the right of either the Employer or the Union under the terms of the Agreement shall be changed or altered in any way unless such change or alteration is agreed to in writing between the Employer and the Union . Therefore, the Employer and the Union , for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily waives the right, and agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement.

- IV. Any agreement reached between the Employer and the Union is binding upon all Employees in the bargaining unit, the Employer and the Union, and may not be changed by any individual or group of Employees, or the Employer or the Union.
- V. Should any part or provision of this Agreement be rendered or declared illegal or invalid by operation of law or by decision of any tribunal of competent jurisdiction or if compliance with or enforcement of any provision should be restrained by such tribunal pending a final determination as to its validity, the remaining part(s) or provision(s) of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby. In the event any provision herein contained is so rendered invalid, upon written request the Employer and the Union shall enter into collective bargaining for the purpose of negotiating a mutually satisfactory replacement for such provision.
